

The Loss Prevention Foundation (LPF) Announces New Director of Operations

Matthews, NC (March 7, 2018) - The Loss Prevention Foundation announced that Mathew Schrinier, LPC has been named as its Director of Operations, effective March 5, 2018. The appointment is to enhance the foundations ability to continue to deliver on its mission and passion is to advance the retail loss prevention and asset protection profession by providing relevant, convenient and challenging educational resources.

"I am extremely excited about having a talent like Mat join the Foundation. His experience and enthusiasm for the Foundation's mission will be a tremendous asset to our team and the industry," stated Terry Sullivan, LPC and LPF's President. Terry continued, "Schriner joins the Foundation after serving most recently as Safety Manager for Lowe's Companies, Inc. Mat has held numerous other positions at Lowe's to include Corporate Manager of Loss Prevention, Safety & Operations Support and Loss Prevention Core Business Manager (LP Process & Strategy), Loss Prevention Operations Technical Project Manager (LP Operations) along with 6 years of Area Manager experience. Prior to Lowe's, Mat served the soft-lines industry for 5 years with Kohl's, L.S. Ayers and K-Mart." Mat is a graduate of Indiana University with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. "Go Hoosiers!" emphasized Mat.

"It's an honor and a privilege to be able to serve The Loss Prevention Foundation and the Loss Prevention/Asset Protection industry. I'm looking forward to being part of the organization's ongoing success." stated Schrinier.

Schriner will be responsible for overseeing operations, marketing, strategy, industry outreach and all program enhancements of the organization.
